A catalogue of non-compliances, infringements and irregularities applying to the Organic Sector in Ireland, based on the provisions of the various EU regulations as well as national legislation.

Organic Unit, Department of Agriculture, Food and the Marine, Johnstown Castle Estate, Wexford, Ireland – July 2018

Updated: 20/11/2020

Introduction

This document is produced in accordance with Article 30 (1) of Regulation 834/2007 (Infringements and Irregularities), and Article 92(d) of 889/2008 as amended.

Its purpose is to set out a comprehensive list of non-compliances, infringements and irregularities applying to the Organic Sector in Ireland, based on the provisions of the various EU regulations as well as national legislation.

Regulatory background

Article 92 (d) of 889/2008 as amended provides as follows:

“Competent authorities shall adopt and communicate to control bodies that have been delegated control tasks, a catalogue at least listing infringements and irregularities affecting the organic status of products and corresponding measures to be applied by control bodies in case of infringements or irregularities by operators under their control who are involved in organic production.

Competent authorities may include other relevant information in the catalogue on their own initiative.”

Response of the Irish Competent Authority

The Irish Authorities hereby communicate to all control bodies a document outlining examples of types of non-compliance together with sanctions which should be imposed, at a minimum, and a catalogue listing infringements and irregularities affecting the organic status of products and corresponding measures to be applied by control bodies in cases of infringements or irregularities by operators under their control who are involved in organic production. In exceptional circumstances where the organic integrity of a product is directly compromised and after due consideration of mitigating circumstances, and with agreement of the Competent Authority, the sanction may be reduced. Similarly, the measures to be applied by the Organic Control Body may be elevated to a higher sanction in proportion to the extent to which the provision has been violated, the particular type and circumstances of the irregularity and mindful of any pattern of reoccurrence. If the organic integrity of the product is not directly compromised, then re categorisation by the OCB is permitted. A composite list of all cases where sanctions are reduced must be maintained and available to the Department, as the Competent Authority, on request.

This document has been drawn up in consultation with The Organic Forum, representing all Control Bodies operating within the Irish jurisdiction. This document is not exhaustive and will be subject to on-going amendment. Other infringements and irregularities which also affect the organic status of products but are not listed must also be duly considered by the Control Body.

Note on the Suspension of Operators

Article 30 (1) of Council Regulation (EC) 834/2007 provides that:

“where a severe infringement or an infringement with prolonged effect is found, the control authority or control body shall prohibit the operator concerned from marketing products which refer to the organic production method in the labelling and advertising for a period to be agreed with the competent authority of the Member State”

In Ireland either type of breach (severe infringement or an infringement with prolonged effect) is referred to as a ‘manifest infringement’. The period during which an operator is prohibited from marketing organic products should be considered on a case-by-case basis. However, to ensure that Irish Control Bodies adopt a broadly consistent approach, the following framework should be applied

The Framework

- Two years will generally be seen as the appropriate period of prohibition for a severe infringement or an infringement with prolonged effect. This prohibits the licensee to trade in any organic product for a period of two years. This should be regarded as the baseline against which other prohibitions are considered. A two year period will in most cases allow sufficient time for operators to review their systems and implement compliant procedures. It should also offer organic consumers reassurance about the integrity of the organic sector.

The Tables in the Annexes provides more detail on:

- the classifications of different types of non-compliance;
 - the types of actions that fall under each classification;
 - the action that Control Bodies are expected to take in respect of each type of classification;
 - the timescale for taking action; and
 - any follow-up action that might be necessary
- The following are examples of severe infringements or infringements with a prolonged effect:
 - fraudulent activity e.g. passing non-organic products off as organic;
 - incomplete records as a result of the omission of information;
 - two or more examples of behaviour that have a direct impact on the health and welfare of an operator’s organic livestock assessed over a 12 month rolling period (depending on the severity of the case, one successful prosecution on these grounds could be sufficient to constitute a severe infringement or an infringement with prolonged effect); and
 - failure, within a reasonable period, to correct three or more identified critical non-compliances.

- In determining the length of any prohibition, Control Bodies should consider both the circumstances of the breach and the circumstances of the operator. The following are examples of what are considered to be ‘aggravating factors’ and, if present alongside the severe infringement or infringement with prolonged effect, are likely to increase the prohibition period; this is not an exclusive list:
 - Evidence that animals under the case/control of the operator have been subjected to avoidable physical harm/mutilation/malnutrition that is inconsistent with the standard of care that is expected from an operator
 - The operator being obstructive towards any investigations undertaken by the Organic Control Bodies and/ or the Competent Authority following their findings;
 - Actions that have resulted in a public health issue
 - Contamination of product due to inadequate measures to ensure separation of organic and non-organic products
 - Operator is unable to demonstrate the organic status of an ingredient used in a product

In such cases, it may be considered appropriate to extend the agreed prohibition period to more than two years. This will be dependent on the individual circumstances of the matter.

DAFM and the Control Body should consider the individual case and agree a suitable period of prohibition. In exceptional circumstances after due consideration of mitigating circumstances, and with agreement of the Competent Authority, the sanction may be reduced.

- The Control Body should assess the circumstances surrounding the case and inform DAFM, suggesting a suitable period of prohibition. DAFM will then consider the case and confirm (with reasons) within 10 working days whether or not the suggested period of prohibition is considered to be appropriate. DAFM will ensure that all Control Bodies adopt a similar approach by checking as part of its annual assessments of the Control Bodies. Any non-compliances relating to the Control Body’s additional private standards are not relevant under Article 30 of Council Regulation (EC) 834/2007.

End of the prohibition period:

- Once the prohibition period ends, the operator can market products as organic provided they have a current organic licence, are registered with the Competent Authority and, where necessary, have complied with any requirements.

Residue Analysis Action Form

Any positive laboratory analysis result must be investigated by the OCB in order to determine the possible source of contamination and the appropriate follow-up action taken as outlined below

% of MRL	DAFM NOTIFICATION REQUIRED	Status of contaminated produce	OCB Action Required	DAFM Action
10% or less of MRL	Notify DAFM within 3 working days of the conclusion of OCB investigation and corrective action taken	Temporarily hold affected organic batch from sale or distribution as organic for duration of investigation.	Investigate to identify possible source of contamination and make decision on action relating to product based on outcome of investigation	Where appropriate, DAFM will liaise with OCB.
>10% to 80% of MRL	Notify DAFM Immediately	Immediately put affected batch on hold and prohibit its sale/distribution as organic	Investigate to try to identify source of contamination, produce a report on same with findings and recommendations and forward to DAFM within 3 working days of conclusion of investigation	DAFM will confirm appropriate corrective action (with reasons) within 5 days of receipt of the OCB report on contamination
>80% or above of MRL	Notify DAFM Immediately	Immediately withdraw the organic status of the product/lot/batch and prohibit its sale/distribution as organic	Investigate to try to identify source of contamination, produce a report of findings; confirm withdrawal of organic status of batch/lot and supply to DAFM within 3 working days of conclusion of investigation	Where appropriate, DAFM will liaise with OCB.
Residues detected greater than MRL	Notify DAFM immediately	Withdraw organic status immediately; instruct operator to quarantine product, notify customers of issue. Instruction from DAFM may require product recall and disposal.	Investigate to try to identify source of contamination. Based on outcome of investigation produce a report on same with findings and recommendations which may include suspension of operator and forward to DAFM	DAFM will consult with relevant CA: DAFM/FSAI/SFPA with regard to the level of residue and the public health implications of consuming the product. DAFM will consider the case and confirm appropriate corrective action (with reasons) within 5 working days of receipt of the OCB report on contamination.

NB: In instances, where there is no MRL for the residue detected, the OCB should immediately contact DAFM for guidance.
